THAILAND MISSIONS

2011

MAY/JUNE

"Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus."

NEW BUILDING Eph. 3:20-21 a

We want to thank everyone that has prayed with us about finding a new building. The Lord blessed! The Lord provided a building that was not only bigger, but brand new, and the cost was only a little bit more than the building we were renting. PRAISE THE LORD! When He does the work... it is always done right and done better than we can do on our own.

HOME CHURCH AND FAMILY VISIT

We were originally planning to go on furlough to visit churches in 2012, but after praying we are going to wait until 2013 to do a long furlough to visit supporting churches. Because of this decision we are going to make a trip back this fall to visit our families and sending church. We will get to spend the Holidays with family and the girls are very excited to see their Grandparents and the rest of the family. We are thankful for our missionary friends Chad and Jessica Pope in Bangkok who will come and fill-in for us while we are gone. If you would like to help with the cost of airfare please send offerings to sending church and mark them for airfare. Any help would be greatly appreciated. The cost of airfare is $6,000.

MOVING ALONG

Things are going well at Khon Kaen Baptist Church. On June 5th we had an organization service. We had a great service where the folks came together with a desire to carry out the Great Commission of Jesus Christ. I preached about the foundational truths, the formation, the functions, the members, and the mission of New Testament churches. Please pray for a few folks that did not fully grasp the importance of having a membership. All in all it was a great service and we are looking forward to seeing what the Lord is going to do here in Khon Kaen and we feel truly blessed to have a part in His work here. Our friend, Jay Aarseth, has moved to Khon Kaen and is helping us in this church plant. He is a veteran missionary of 25 years. We are thankful to have him here. Please pray for him as he adjusts to life in Thailand. His wife, Linda, is arriving in Thailand on June 25th. Thanks for praying. More news on page 2.

HEART OF THE HELP MEET

When I humble myself, step out of His way, and SEE God work...(in all things)...I am able to see how much He loves me and how much He loves others. With the POWER of prayer on my side (thanks for the prayers) I have made an effort to give the everyday things to God. And although I still mess up, God has blessed me with opportunities to see Him work things out in wondrous ways in my life and in the lives of those He blesses me with knowing. Whether it is Tim or the girls, this woman or that man at church, this neighbor or that person I met at the gym...I have lots of ideas about the way each of them "would be better if..." And after I laugh at myself for being so prideful, I let go and let God work, and through stepping out of the way I am continually being WOWED by His Majesty. Every little detail of each person is important to God. He so beautifully orchestrates each piece of the quilt of life and carefully arranges things so that each person has a chance to know HIM personally and more clearly. He does this even when we are swallowed up in our pride...Please continue to pray for our lost family and friends, KKBC, the Thai people, and my obedience as I serve Him where He has me. Thanks, Jahnet

FAMILY NEWS

Hannah and Ahleah have followed the Lord in believers baptism. We are very excited for our little girls. This is by their own choice. We have never once told them to be baptized, but allowed the Lord to show them that they needed to obey His command to be baptized and not do it for us. They obeyed as the Lord led. We are so thankful that our girls love the Lord as much as they do. Thank you God!

OTHER NEWS

Jahnet has had 3 new kids from the neighborhood start coming to her Sunday school and children's church. Gina, Sunny, and Oh. We have also had another visitor, Mike, who has come to church a few times. He said he saw the sign so he decided to stop in. Please continue to pray for Kwun and Mam. Kwun is Jeff's wife, and she is getting closer and closer to salvation. She is beginning to see that only God has the power to open and shut doors and she is seeing God's Hand at work. Please pray that she will be saved soon. Mam is learning more and more about Jesus. She comes to Jahnet's ladies meeting on Friday nights, she helps clean the church and pass out tracts every Saturday, she helps translate for Jahnet's Sunday school class, and she is in service every Sunday. She is doing all of this and is not saved. I can't wait to see what she does when she gets saved. We also traveled up to Udon Thani so that we could say good-bye to the Jones'. They were leaving to go on furlough. Please pray for them while they are on the road. God Bless and thanks for the prayers.

KID'S KORNER

The weeks are flying by. I am so busy with fun activities, as well as working hard to finish 3rd grade. Some things that I like doing are taking art class, swimming, and speaking Thai. Learning Thai is very hard work. It was very exciting to be baptized on May 15th. -Hannah

Please pray for me because the Thai language is hard to learn, but the things I know how to say are easy to say and I like to speak a lot! I'm almost finished 3rd grade. My mom ordered the 4th grade books and when she put them on the shelf, I grabbed one and started reading it. I have a really fun time swimming on Tue. & Thur. with my friends Amy and Anya. I love art class. My teachers name is Ying (girl). -Ahleah
